

Dear Parent,

Good news – Zula B. Wylie Public Library has subscribed to a fun, new reading program that you and your child can access from home using your library card! Please find BookFlix on the library website at www.cedarhilllibrary.org. You can use this online literacy resource that pairs classic video storybooks from Weston Woods with related nonfiction eBooks from Scholastic to build a love of reading and learning. This engaging resource for children in grades PreK-3 will help early readers develop and practice essential reading skills and introduces students to a world of knowledge and exploration.

Your children can access Scholastic BookFlix anywhere there is an Internet connection. This interactive resource will help them get excited about reading and books and extends learning beyond school hours. BookFlix includes:

- > More than 120 classic video storybooks each paired with a related nonfiction eBook.
- > Spanish language versions of more than 30 pairs.
- > Read-aloud supports so students can hear each book narrated and also hear definitions of key words and directions for each activity.
- > Educational games and activities so children can show what they have learned.
- > Safe, age-appropriate web links selected by Scholastic's editors so kids can extend their learning on a topic.
- > Meet the author section to learn more about the author of each fiction book.

Scholastic BookFlix is specifically created to support non-, beginning and reluctant readers – it's the perfect resource for independent reading practice at school and at home!

Please contact the library if you need additional assistance with the Scholastic BookFlix site, 972-291-7323 ext 1300.

Happy reading!
